CHANCERY COURT.

Case of Peyton & Son vs. Mayor and Alderman

Acted Upon—Board Files a Demurrer, but Chancellor Abernathy Overrules It.

Chancery Court reconvened in adjourned session last Monday, and will remain in session throughout to-morrow. A number of decisions have been handed down by Chancellor Abernathy, but few that are of interest to the public in general. The case of Peyton & Sons, retail whiskey dealers, versus the Board of Mayor and Aldermen was acted upon. This was a bill of injunction filed by the complainants, to restrain the Board of Aldermen from enforcing an ordinance passed some time ago, known as the "No Screen Law," which provided that "no screen, stained glass, curtains or other obstruction should be placed in front of any place where spirituous liquors are sold to be drunk upon the premises, so as to obstruct the view from the front entrance." The Board filed a demurrer to the injunction, but Chancellor Abernathy did away with the demurrer and ordered that the Board make answer to the injunction at the next session of Chancery Court, which convenes on the first Monday in July. Messrs. Peyton & Son are represented by W. J. Webster and Voorhies & Fowler; and the city by James A. Smiser, Sam Holding, and Figuers & Padgett.

In the case of E. L. Hay, Extr., et al., vs. Bettie Hay et al., pertaining to the will of the late John M. Hay, the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was allowed the sum of $4,000. The sale of half interest in the J. B. Pillow place, by Mrs. Lem Long et al., to Col. J. W. S. Ridley, for $5,000, was confirmed. The division sale to W. G. Satterfield of the A. W. Potter place, belonging to Satterfield & Jacobs, for $7,000, was confirmed. In the case of H. B. Titecomb vs. Mrs. J. E. Parks et al., Mr. Titecomb was given judgment for $2,103.59. E. B. Rayburn, Esq., was sworn in as a practitioner at this court.

Of Interest to Any Farmer,

Who uses a cultivator. As you know, cultivator points cost one dollar each; save 60 cents on each point by bringing them to us and having them pointed. We will make them as good as when new. If you do not think so when the job is done, we will not charge anything. Shop on South Main street, Columbia, Tenn. apr 23-2t CRAIG & FISHER.

SOUTH EAST SIDE.

Mrs. R. A. Shadden sold her home here last week, and, in company with her brother, Mr. James Fain, left here to make her home in Sumpter, Baker County, Oregon. We wish for their great success in their new home.

Mr. Austin Tucker has gone to Pulaski to live, having accepted a position with the Pulaski Carriage Co. We wish him well.

Messrs. Wash Taylor and Joe Ragansburg were visiting relatives in Lawrenceburg a few days the first of the week.

Miss Fannie Belle Massey, of Lipscomb, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant Massey last week.

Rev. Noland Hull and wife, also Misses Willie and Nora Hull, after a pleasant visit with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Pilkinton, have returned to their home in Williamsport.

Mrs. John Bragg and Mr. Herman Williams, of Godwin, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Batts for a few days.

Fire on last Tuesday night at 11 o'clock, consumed the entire stock of groceries belonging to Messrs. Wash Taylor and T. J. Haley, also a cabin where a colored family lived. They had a small insurance on their stock of goods, but not near enough to cover their loss. The fire is a mystery, as there had not been any fire in the store for a week. We wish them well, and hope that they will soon be on their feet again. The house and cabin belonged to Mr. Taylor Voss. TRAMP.

STRAWBERRIES.

Mr. Rainey Will Begin Marketing Them To-morrow.

The strawberry crop is unusually early this season, and Mr. Horace Rainey, who always has the first, enjoyed them for dinner last Sunday. They are very fine, as well as very early, and as yet very scarce. Telephone orders have kept Mr. Rainey's supply exhausted, so far, but he expects to begin marketing them to-morrow. However, if you wish to be certain of some of this luscious fruit for your Sunday dinner, you had better send your telephone order in to-day.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Mr. F. M. Galloway died at his home near Hurricane Switch, Tuesday, April 20, after several days illness, from pneumonia. Deceased was in his 75th year at the time of his death, and was well known and respected throughout the county. He leaves three children—Mrs. R. H. Caskey, Mr. W. T. and Rev. M. L. Galloway, of this county. The funeral services were conducted at Pleasant Mount church Wednesday at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. M. White, of Hopewell; interment at family burying ground.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reeves, wife of Mr. William Reeves, died at her residence on South Garden street yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, after a week's illness from pneumonia. A husband and one son, Duncan, survive her. At our hour of going to press last night, the arrangements for the funeral services had not been made.

Alcorn's DRUG STORE.

Do You Use? Perfumes!

We have just received a new lot of Palmer's Fine Perfumes, Toilet Waters, Toilet Soaps and Baby Powder. PALMER'S Garland of Roses, Garland of Violets and Fashion are the very latest thing, and the best odors we have ever seen. All of Palmer's Perfumes are lasting. There are several of our own preparations just in season now. ALCON'S Syrup of Red Clover is the very best blood purifier you can use. ALCON'S Celery and Kola Compound is a fine tonic and appetizer. ALCON'S Elixir of Cod Liver Oil is just in season now. There is no better time to use ALCON'S Anti-bilious Remedy than right now. ALCON'S Worm Syrup makes the pale and weak children ruddy and strong.

Don't forget us when you want some paint; but remember we sell Hammer Paint ready for the brush at $1.05 per gallon. There is no better paint made and we guarantee it. We can sell you any brand of White Lead you want at the lowest price.

OVER THE COUNTY

Cabinet photos, $1.50 doz. at Young's. Mr. N. B. Rittenberry of Conway, Giles county, spent a few days with relatives and friends in this county last week.

The residence of Mr. Rose Moore, near Stiversville, with nearly all its contents, was destroyed by fire last Monday night.

For sale, two Poland China gilts and one male, ready for service.

It is stated by experienced horticulturists that the apple crop is, as yet, not hurt by the frost. Peaches and pears, however, have sustained a great deal of damage.

This has been a fine week for farm work, and the plough boy has been up and at it early and late. Wheat and oats were never looking better, and there is yet time for a good corn crop, if the rains are properly distributed through the summer.

You have read of, and you have heard of the famous Rebels, Belle Boyd. If you want to see her, go to the Opera House next Tuesday night.

Sam Whitehead, a 17-year-old white boy from the 17th district, was arrested last week on the charge of stealing $10 from Bud Ward. He was tried before Esquire Holt, who bound him over to the Circuit Court, and in default of bond was placed in jail.

Some of our correspondents have gotten into the careless habit of signing only their nom de plumes to the letters, and leaving off their real names. We wish to again remind them that we cannot publish communications without somebody's name being signed thereto, even though we may recognize the nom de plume and think we recognize the writing. Please remember this.

A GREAT HELP

to the preparation of a good meal is pure food. Our groceries have always been noted for their general excellence. We have just received a fresh supply of our famous Blend of Roasted Coffee, Flavoring Extracts, Green and Black Teas, Royal Salad Dressing, Plymouth Rock Phosphated Gelatine. We are now receiving Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

For the Historical Department.

(PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.) It is the purpose of the Historical Department of the Tennessee Centennial to have a very complete exhibition of Confederate relics; and to make this display as interesting as possible a very earnest appeal is made to all having in their possession any of these sacred mementoes of our war to lend them to the department, being assured they will be well cared for and safely returned.

It is important that all relics should be sent in as soon as possible so that everything will be in place by the opening day; so all who have articles that they will lend send them to Mrs. S. G. Dunnington or Mrs. W. B. Dobbins, who will carefully pack and send them to the department. Write a short history of relics and attach the owner's name.

ATHENEUM NOTES.

Capt. Smith is just in receipt of a book written by the Rev. W. N. Guthrie, entitled "Modern Poet Prophets." This work contains several of his lectures which have given him a deservedly high reputation as a finished scholar. Mr. Guthrie was formerly connected with the Athenaeum, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his success in the field of letters.

Prof. Von Adelung, who once had charge of the department of music here, has been re-engaged for the next scholastic year, and is expected to visit the school in May. He will probably be present at the commencement exercises, and may remain during the summer.

Miss Helen Smith will lead on "The Historical Novel" at the Teacher's Club this evening. After the discussion, Capt. Smith will enter in the Club with some refreshments.

The Athenaeum greenhouse furnished quite a number of flowers for the Easter celebration, and the plants are still blooming profusely. Mr. E. G. Smith has furnished the tennis court with a new wire netting and put everything in readiness for those who love that fascinating game.

Master Clinton Whitthorne, after an absence of several weeks in consequence of a broken arm, has returned to school. His presence is welcomed by both his teachers and schoolmates.

The library has again been kindly remembered by Mr. Ronald Thomas, who has recently donated a number of German books.

Miss Schaub has presented to the museum a Mexican lasso, which was sent by her brother, now a resident of the City of Mexico.

School Directors' Meeting.

Although the farmers were quite busy, a very fair and interesting meeting of the School Directors was held at the court house in Columbia, Saturday, April 10, and the following summary of conclusions reached were ordered published:

1. All school warrants except those for the salaries of teachers, must be countersigned by the County Superintendent.

2. No Director can be the owner of school warrants, except the Clerk, and he only for the enumeration of scholastic population, and then only after his report of the same is made, and all other reports. (Clerk's abstract, etc.) are made and handed in to County Superintendent. Then a warrant for this, at 2 cents per capita, signed by himself and the other two Directors, must be countersigned by the County Superintendent. The other Directors get no pay except the honor.

3. The time for schools to begin and close is left to Directors.

4. The census can be taken early, only in July.

5. The census and clerk's abstracts from teacher's abstracts must be handed in to County Superintendent by or before July 15.

All teachers of public schools and of public school pupils in consolidated schools must have (1) certificates, (2) make monthly reports to the Clerk, and at the close of the term, give the Clerk his teacher's abstract, filled out for the term, and also his register for the term, and he must send a copy of his teacher's abstract to County Superintendent before he can get his last warrant for his service as teacher.

7. The County Trustee is to report quarterly to County Superintendent and to the Directors of the several districts the amount of money on hand for distribution.

8. As the time for the County Superintendent to make his annual report has been moved up three months, the Clerk must do the same and report by July 15.

9. District Clerks must keep record of (1) proceedings of Directors, (2) amount paid out by warrant (3) file as vouchers accounts and bills so paid.

10. Directors must visit the schools and also take cognizance of offenses of pupils on the way to and from school.

11. As the law requires teacher's to be examined before a certificate can be granted, examinations for certificates of the same grade and class should be equal and impartial. The meeting was a very animated one and conclusions reached were unanimous in almost every case.

SANCTUM SENTIMENTS.

What is the matter with Kentucky? It is reported that Henry Watterson is about to leave that State, abandon journalism and take up his residence in New York; that Madeline Pollard Breckinridge is to become a citizen of Cincinnati and a law partner of Hon. Judson Harmon, ex-attorney-general of the United States, while ex-Secretary Carlisle has already changed his residence to Manhattan Island. Why this exodus from the land of Bourbon, where the mint grows luxuriant and the red juice flows unrestrained? True, Jo Blackburn and Jack Chinn are left, but it will be mighty lonesome in the Blue Grass country if Henry and Bill and John desert it. Poor old Kentucky!—Chattanooga News.
